I. Description

Nzamukwereka, Albert

Never Again Rwanda, developed in 2002, creates a collaborative partnership of youth around the world. Never Again Rwanda aims at promoting a constructive exchange of ideas to prevent violent conflicts and help remedy its effects. It has been instrumental in bridging divides between youth by engaging them in critical thinking, encouraging them to learn about and advocate for human rights, socio-economic development and peace issues.

Never Again Rwanda highlights the importance of focusing on youth as more than 60% of Rwanda's population are under 20 years old. Youth have a significant role in society to ensure future stability and sanctity for Rwanda.

II. Guiding Principles/ W.E.L.C.O.M.E

Work - Encourage participation in local and international activities around dialogue, human rights, conflict prevention and peace issues

Educate - Create awareness about violence, the root of conflict and peace related issues

Learn - Address the problems and needs of those who are living in conflict and those who have lived through conflict.

CO-operate - Advocate for co-operation among youth and organizations to extend services to all in need

Motivate - Have youth assemble to discuss their role in creating and maintaining a peaceful country

Encourage - Promote youth co-operation through collaboration, commemoration and advocacy

Dancing in Gisenyi

III. Vision

Rwanda's future depends on creative, involved, critical thinking youth who are committed to peace development.

IV. Mission

Never Again Rwanda is committed to creating a peaceful and thriving society. The organization's goal is to enhance the youth's capacity to analyze the root causes of past conflicts and create space for dialogue among peers to generate ideas and activities supporting conflict resolution and sustainable peace.
